

Peter Bushey

Paramedic

FDNY EMS

Brooklyn, NY

End of Service: 02/23/2023

Circumstances: World Trade Center Illness

Peter's Contributions in Life:

Peter joined NYC EMS on May 20, 1996 right when the merger was announced between FDNY and EMS. He loved being a paramedic and especially loved working with the members of Station 40 in Coney Island where he was stationed. He bravely served the department for 25 years. Peter was a First Responder at the WTC during and after the Terrorist attack, spending many months down at Ground Zero during the Rescue and Recovery period, also bravely working during the height of the pandemic. Peter retired from the department on May 30, 2021.
