John's Contributions in Life:

Having been an Emergency Medical Technician (EMT) for over 10 years, John devoted his life to helping and healing others. He knew how to comfort people in their time of need. His calming and soothing nature helped worried patients and families get through difficult times. As a life member of Enola Fire Company No. 3, "Midway Fire Company" John started running fire calls at the age of 14. He was an avid sportsman who loved and collected guns. John enjoyed shooting with friends and family as well as teaching the importance of gun safety. Throughout his life, John strove to bring joy and happiness to all his many friends and family members. He will be fondly remembered as a caring and giving person.
