

Patricia Scaduto

EMT

FDNY EMS

Leonardo, NJ

End of Service: 01/02/2023

Circumstances: Pancreatic Cancer

Patricia's Contributions in Life:

Patricia began her career as an EMT for NYC EMS on August 17, 1987. She spent the next 35 years taking care of the residents and visitors to New York City. She wasn't into any type of fanfare, she just wanted to do her job, that's one of the many reasons that made her so special. On her off time, Patricia loved the quiet life, she loved and enjoyed being a homemaker to her husband Phil {Also on the job} and two sons Jesse and Phil Jr. Patricia was a first responder at the WTC and worked on the rescue and recovery efforts in the months following. She developed Pancreatic Cancer due to her time at ground zero, causing her to retire and ultimately causing her death.
