A great officer, who always had the backs of his people. One time Jack gave money to a new EMT, who wanted to go to paramedic school, but was having financial difficulties. He was a volunteer and instructor at several departments in the surrounding area, as well as a dedicated volunteer in his community, including at Grace Community Church. Jack also had a passion for fishing and his beloved Service Dog Katie, who never left his side. He will always be remembered for his sense of humor.
