Jack's Contributions in Life:

Jack lived a servant life, giving back constantly to his community and family. He was a friend, brother, grandfather, and great grandfather. A humble man stating that he had done a "Few" things in his life. He served on multiple organizations boards including being president of Cambria County Emergency Medical Services prior to it being absorbed by SAEMS. Jack was a paramedic with AMED, where he retired after 23 years, and Lilly Ambulance. He was involved for many years in the fire services, including being the president of Lilly Fire Company and president of Lilly Area Ambulance Association as well as being a police officer in Lilly. Prior to his career in the Fire/EMS service Jack served his country in the Army and the U.S. Naval Reserve Seabees, where he was honored with many awards and metal for his selfless service. He was instrumental in starting the Lilly Heritage Group and developed many tributes.
