David's Contributions in Life:

David was a beloved EMT and a longtime volunteer on the Sedgwick County EMS reserves. He was active in political discussions and enjoyed expressing his opinions. David was a loving dog dad to Cocoa and Harlo. While David was not volunteering, he was an active civil war reenactor. He was also a serious baseball fan and could be seen cheering on the LA Dodgers. Later in life, he moved to CA to be closer to his daughter, who he is survived by.
