Connor's Contributions in Life:

Connor dedicated his life to helping others. He was very passionate about his job working as an EMT for LeRoy Emergency Ambulance Service and was also studying to be a paramedic. Connor spent most of his free time building his relationship and his life with Brittney. They enjoyed their time together in the home they created just the two of them and their cats, "Nemo" and "Harley." He enjoyed going to the gym, playing basketball and he also enjoyed history and reading non-fictional books about history and events.
