Katie's Contributions in Life:

Katie was a 2011 graduate of Greene County High School and began her career path in public service through various medical positions. She continued her education at Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College. Her passion for serving the community was in her work as an EMT and a volunteer with the Mt. Pisgah VFF Association. She greatly enjoyed providing help to others with her ASAP family. She was a passionate individual with a love for animals and spent time working at Lucedale Livestock. She was a member of Living Waters Pentecostal Church, a devoted daughter, loving sister, aunt, cousin, and friend to so many. Her spirit of service and genuine personality will be greatly missed by all who knew her.
