Kimberly's Contributions in Life:

Kimberly Tucker started her career in the medical field as a medic in the United States Army. After leaving the Army she continued in EMS as an EMT-B with various services before finally landing at MedTrust. She was always the first to step forward and give her all when lives were at stake. The two things she was most proud of were her service to this great nation and serving those in need. Her steadfast service, and always sunny disposition will forever leave an indelible mark on those who had the privilege of working with her.
