Scott's Contributions in Life:

Scott was involved in hockey, NROTC and flight clubs during his younger years. He was presented with academic honors in college and received multiple "Employee of the Month" awards as a pilot and flight instructor at L3 Harris in Sanford, FL, where he taught both international and domestic students how to fly. Scott often volunteered for his church and enjoyed helping those in need. He loved to travel and took up running as a hobby to stay physically fit. Scott is survived by his wife, Lisa, daughters, Samantha, Emily and Anna, his parents, John and Marilyn and brothers John and Micheal.
