Donald's Contributions in Life:

Donald Berry's passion for helping people made him a great paramedic. He was a mentor and trainer in the EMS community, known for his compassion and skill. He leaves behind two grandkids and three loving children; one of whom, lulled by his tales of gore and heroics, followed in his footsteps and became an ED Trauma Nurse. Don worshiped his loving wife of 40 years, Anne Berry. Don was an avid fisherman, snorkeler, Donald Duck impersonator, ski stuntman, then ski patroller. He spent his too-short retirement traveling the world with his wife and being a worldclass family man.
